Practice 12.3

Listed companies with a large number of shareholders or which have meetings in remote locations should leverage technology to facilitate—

- including voting in absentia; and
- remote shareholders' participation at General Meetings.

Application	:	Departed
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Not applicable
Explanation for departure	:	The last AGM of the Company was held at the Company's factory which is not located at remote locations. The Board is of the view that the existing procedures of the Company had provided shareholders with sufficient information and time to participate at AGM in person or by proxy. As such, it is not necessary to leverage technology to facilitate voting in absentia as being justified below: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) The notice of AGM and proxy form of CWHB are despatched to shareholders not less than 28 days before the date appointed for holding the AGM. For general meetings other than the AGM, the Company despatches the notice of meeting at least 21 days for special resolution and 14 days for ordinary resolution.2) The explanatory notes to the notice of AGM and/or the contents of circular to shareholders provide detailed explanation of the proposed resolutions to enable shareholders to make informed decisions in exercising their voting rights.3) Shareholders are allowed to appoint any person as proxies to attend and vote at the general meeting. The completed proxy form is to be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjournment; or 24 hours before the time for the taking of the poll at the general meeting.4) All the resolutions put to the general meeting are voted upon by poll and the poll counting process and verifications are conducted by independent scrutineers.
